

INSTOW CHURCH NEEDS YOU!

SATURDAY 13TH & SUNDAY 14TH SEPTEMBER

10.00 AM - 4.30 PM

EXHIBITION OF ST JOHN'S TREASURES

Ring the church bells, see the finest piece of church silver in North Devon, 1874 Wippells of Exeter needlework, learn about the Locks, the Sibthorpes: first Oxford Professor of Rural Economy and Archibald Cleveland who fell at the battle of Inkerman aged 19 years

RESTORATION OF THE COLLAPSING SOUTH TRANSEPT

See the beautifully restored stained glass window; and monument to John Downe Junior; the decorations and reordered seating providing teaching space for Instow Community School's local history lessons.

WW1 EXHIBITION - INSTOW'S PART IN THE GREAT WAR

Names of everyone from the village who served in the war with details about them. Books and exhibits of interest from friends and families and monuments. Visit the War Memorial restored by Devon Remembers

COFFEE, LUNCH, TEAS IN THE CHURCH ROOM EACH DAY

IN AID OF DEVON HISTORIC CHURCHES TRUST
WHICH GAVE A GRANT TOWARDS THE WORKS AND SHARES ANY MONIES
COLLECTED THIS WEEKEND WITH ST JOHN'S

