An earnest appeal for Donations to support the work of the Devon Historic Churches Trust

The DHCT is a volunteer charity dedicated to providing funding for our glorious but vulnerable parish churches.

- We provide grants for their essential repairs and refurbishments in a simple and accessible formula.
- We also provide Emergency funding in a matter of days when something unexpected and urgent occurs.
- There is no 'magic money tree' for providing the funding from DHCT that all our churches need to undertake vital work to their fabric.
- Volunteers throughout Devon are giving their time and talents every day to deliver the services that every community needs.
- But the considerable cost of repairs to the building are virtually always beyond their resources – this is why supporting the DHCT is so very important – we are there in their 'hour of need'.
